

THE GRAND THEATER YEAR IN REVIEW

When reflecting on the past year, it's hard to believe there was ever a time before March. At first, we didn't want 2020 to end: with nine shows already sold out and another ten sold-out shows scheduled for later in the season, 2020 was on track to be another record-breaking year for The Grand.

And then, March 13 arrived.

Everyone remembers where they were when they realized that COVID was going to fundamentally change life as we knew it. The Broadway tour of "Waitress" had already loaded on to the stage at The Grand when everything came to a standstill. In that moment, the Arts and Entertainment industry fundamentally changed, and still hasn't recovered.

In that moment, we had to make a choice: we could either go into hibernation and wait for the world to return to "normal," or we could adapt. Our mission is to educate, entertain, and enrich our community: it was time to live that mission in an entirely new way.

The Grand moved online, outside, onto laptop screens and into our city parks. We showcased students, emerging artists, and Broadway superstars. And as we continue to work to survive this extended intermission, we will continue to adapt, serving our community in the best ways we can.

None of this would be possible without your support of The Grand's Ghost Light Fund. A ghost light is part of a long-held theatrical tradition of leaving a single light burning whenever a theater is unoccupied—lighting the way for a safe return to the stage. Your support will help us keep the ghost light illuminated until it is time for us to gather together in our historic space.

We don't know when it will be safe to gather together again, but we do know that the arts have always been a source of hope when we need it the most. Your support helps our light continue to shine, and allows us to continue develop programming to bring hope to all of us.

"We want to thank you for a marvelous break in the seemingly endless identical days of quarantining. Last night we ordered food from The Mint, made "The Hit Men Mojitos", connected my computer to the TV and attended a Ruder Ware Virtual Stage performance of The Hit Men. What could be better!"

THE CENTRAL WISCONSIN JERRY ENSEMBLE BEST OF BROADWAY SERIES

While things are certainly quite different for this year's Jerry Ensemble, nothing can stop these talented students from performing! This winter and spring, the Central Wisconsin Jerry Ensemble will present "The Best of Broadway," a series of performances, recorded on the historic Grand Theater stage and streamed on The Grand's Facebook and YouTube pages, that celebrate America's rich musical theater history. Coming up in December, don't miss the first installment, which will showcase the beloved musical theater songs of America's Jazz Age. You'll hear pieces from Cole Porter, Irving Berlin, George Gershwin, and maybe even a holiday tune or two!

"Even though this year looks a lot different for the Jerry Ensemble than we had expected, we're still finding ways to make the most out of it. I know for me, personally, this has been a great learning experience... It's been allowing me to focus more on my personal musicianship and acting. This new, socially distanced way of singing together is definitely new to the group, but it has been a lot of fun, and I'm excited to continue performing and creating."
