An exciting season awaits

It feels like just yesterday that we were reopening our doors after a 17-month shutdown, but somehow a year has flown by and another Wisconsin summer is quickly coming to a close. It's certainly been a great summer here at The Grand, as the response to the upcoming season has been incredible. We are so excited for the season to come and can't wait to get it started this October!

Before we turn all our attention to the new season, I want to offer a word of thanks for your incredible support over the past year. Whether it was as ticket buyers, renters, sponsors or donors, you made our return to in-person performances an incredibly successful one! The support that we receive each year is truly amazing, and we are proud to be a part of a community that is so incredibly supportive of the performing arts.

As the new season approaches, we hope you'll stay connected as we announce additional shows, performances from our talented Central Wisconsin Jerry Ensemble, special pre-show events, shows in our new Lift Every Voice series, and programs in the Bridge Clinic Community Engagement Series, which allow you to experience the arts in new and different ways throughout the year.

We are grateful for your support and look forward to an amazing season!

The entire season at The Grand is supported by the Wisconsin Arts Board with funds from the State of Wisconsin and the National Endowment for the Arts. These performances are also supported by the Community Arts Grant program of the Community Foundation of North Central Wisconsin, the B.A. & Esther Greenheck Foundation, and the City of Wausau's Room Tax Funding.

THE DOO WOP PROJECT

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7

“Oh, what a show!... Be sure to catch this fabulous act when you can.”

—DC Theatre Arts

This Broadway-quality concert has elicited thunderous standing ovations across the U.S. for its energy, artistry and creativity as it takes audiences on a whirlwind tour of the distinctly American music genre, doo wop.

But this isn't just a playlist of oldies. The Doo Wop Project brings this genre into the 21st century and spikes it with contemporary flavors for new audiences. Love the sounds of Frankie Valli, The Drifters, or The Del-Vikings? Ever wonder what Maroon 5 or Jason Mraz would sound like in the Doo Wop era? That's the kind of music magic that will happen on stage when The Doo Wop Project opens the Grand Theater's 2022/23 season.

The Doo Wop Project traces the genre from its inception of groups singing tight harmonies on a street corner, all the way to the biggest hits on the radio today. DWP takes audiences on a journey from foundational tunes of groups like The Crests, The Belmonts, and The Flamingos through their influences on Smokey Robinson, The Temptations, and The Four Seasons.

You'll be thrilled by their DooWopified versions of modern songs by Michael Jackson, Jason Mraz, Maroon 5 and even Garth Brooks. The Doo Wop Project uses their vocal excellence to recreate—and in some cases entirely reimagine—some of the greatest music in American pop and rock history!

THE OK FACTOR & JAERV

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 11

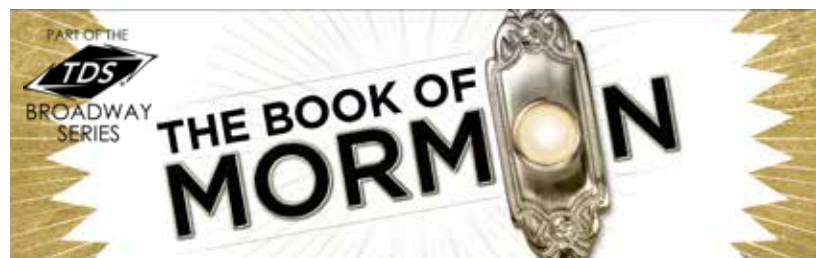

The classical-crossover duo The OK Factor returns to The Grand, this time with the award-winning Swedish quintet Jaerv. The two innovative folk groups collaborated in Sweden last summer, and are touring the U.S. together for the first time this fall. Their stop at The Grand to perform their program "Traditions" will culminate in a residency with local music students. With a genre-bending sound described as "pure magic," this concert will treat you to fresh, creative musicianship that blends vigorous traditional folk with classical, jazz, pop and fascinating instrumentation.
