A special season to match The Grand's transformation

There have been many exciting seasons in The Grand's 99 years, but I have to say this is one of the most exciting! The 26/27 season is our Grand Reopening Season after $17.5 million in transformational upgrades to our historic space and the entire block!

So of course, the season has to match that excitement, and from our reopening show, the legendary Wayne Newton, we think we've done exactly that. The season is headlined by an incredible Broadway Series with shows like Beetlejuice, CLUE, A Beautiful Noise and four other amazing titles – including weekend Broadway shows! We've got legendary headliners including Jay Leno, the Blind Boys of Alabama, Wailin' Jenny's, Blood, Sweat & Tears, the Wisconsin debut of Love Actually in Concert and so much more! Plus holiday shows, a full slate of family shows, country, comedy, classic rock and so many more you are going to love! It's truly a season for everyone to enjoy the "new yet familiar" Grand!

We cannot thank you enough for your support of The Grand and we cannot wait to share year #99 with you starting in November!

Bring on the horns and let's crank up the volume! Blood, Sweat & Tears is back, and they sound as ferocious as ever. These Grammy-winning, chart-topping pioneers of jazz rock fusion helped define an era with anthems that still hit as hard today as they did the first time you heard them. Bonus: The band will be joined by special guest Jeff Coffey, former lead singer of Chicago, performing the biggest classics of another incredible band.

Blood, Sweat & Tears is not the first band to ever use a horn section, but they are the first to fuse it with rock, jazz, and some blues thrown in for good measure. After more than 50 years of touring, founding member Bobby Colomby still hand-picks new musicians joining the band for each tour under his theory that "great musicians make great music." You'll hear a night of their big, timeless hits like "You Make Me So Very Happy," "Spinning Wheel," and more.

SUNDAY, MARCH 7 • 7:00 PM

For almost 70 years, the London-based orchestra Academy of St. Martin in the Fields has made some of the most beloved classical recordings in history — from Vivaldi's Four Seasons to the soundtrack of the movie Amadeus — and hearing the orchestra live is a revelation that no recording can replicate. Described by New York Magazine as "the kind of musician who is shaping the future of classical music," Tao appears regularly as a soloist with leading orchestras and at major venues across the world.

LED ZEPPELIN II

SATURDAY, APRIL 10 • 7:30 PM

Note for note. Cut for cut. Classic Albums Live brings the legendary Led Zeppelin II album to the stage, performed live, exactly as it was recorded — and you will experience the songs' ferocity and energy that only a live performance can truly capture. Whether it's the thunderous groove of "Whole Lotta Love" or the mythic sweep of "Ramble On," every second of this concert is exactly what rock and roll was always supposed to feel like. The second set of the performance will treat fans to more of Led Zeppelin's greatest hits.

Classic Albums Live boasts an exceptional ensemble of performers, who all have graced elite stages and collaborated with industry icons both in studio and on stage. "CAL is a modern-day orchestra," says founder Craig Martin, "utilizing the highest-level players whose unique ability to focus and execute with precision is essential to authentically recreating these records."

Guitar solos, drum solos. Lord of the Rings references. This album has it all. When we perform this album the note-for-note is a given. But people don't realize that before Page tears into "Whole Lotta Love," the record starts with a quiet cough... This album changed rock music. It's not heavy metal, it's a rock album that often sounds like blues and country. It's one of the greatest rock albums ever made. We love it and it shows. — CRAIG MARTIN

With an irreverent book and a score that's out of this Netherworld, BEETLEJUICE is "SCREAMINGLY GOOD FUN!" (Variety). And under its uproarious surface (six feet under, to be exact), it's a remarkably touching show about family, love, and making the most of every Day-O! Contains strong language, mature references, and a lot of the crazy, inappropriate stuff you would expect from a deranged demon.

Take a seat to a bigger-than-life, super-charged journey back to a turbulent and groundbreaking era, when The Sixties Show fills The Grand with history, pop culture, and music. This is not a nostalgia tribute act. This popular, award-winning off-Broadway show is a multimedia immersive experience, revolving around a note-for-note concert performed by current and former band members of The Who, The Rascals, John Fogarty's band, and others who have been hand-picked to perform with legends including Bruce Springsteen.

The setlist dives deep, featuring not just Top 40 hits, but also deep cuts that defined the 60s soundscape. Every note is performed live — no backing tracks, no samples — using authentic 1960s-era gear and instrumentation. Powerfully dramatized by archival footage, newsreel audio, a light show, and time-bending narration, the result is a spectacular multi-dimensional history lesson that fires on all fronts. The Sixties Show is nothing less than awe-inspiring.
